Brother Knights,
With September here, I am wondering where the summer went. The parish festivals of St. Joachim and Conception will be coming up soon. If you haven't volunteered to help, I encourage you to consider it. Many hours go into making these events successful and they can use all the help they can get.
Thank you to all the Knights that helped out on Corn on the Cob days. We had a nice turnout for helpers handing out tootsie rolls in the parade. Thanks to Brad Frisch, Greg Neau and his two grandchildren Thea and Wesley Pitkin, Steve Schouweiler, Matt Siebenaler, Trever Wingert, and Lee Lingl. Special thanks to Roger Siebenaler and Paul Wingert for getting the float ready and pulling it in the parade.

I also want to thank Glenn Schmidt and all those who worked bingo at the park: Bob De Pompolo, Eric Klein, Rich Olson, Norb Marx, Bill Miller, Pat McDonough, Ryan Marx, Greg Speedling, Bob Lyons, Ike Speedling, Ron Klavetter and Lyle Powers.

During these difficult times in the Church, I ask that every Knight keep in your prayers the victims of clergy abuse. Pray also for our Church, the Holy Father, Bishops, priests, deacons and religious. It is, especially times like these, that we need to show our solidarity with them. Our founding responsibilities as Knights is to be there for our clergy and our Church. "If one member suffers, all suffer together with it" (1 Cor 12:26). Pray for healing in our Church and repentance from those responsible for the abuse and cover up.

God Bless
Vivat Jesus
GK Jerome Schmidt

New Business:

1) There will be a KofC Float in the Corn on the Cob Parade. Roger Siebenaler and Paul Wingert cleaned it up and are asking for help from other Knights for handing out candy (not throwing from the float). Steve Schouweiler, Brad Fritsch, Jerome Schmidt and Greg Neau volunteered to help with candy and Lee Lingl will ride along in the truck.

2) Jerome Schmidt has the quarters for the nursing home bingo. Looking for a volunteer to take over responsibilities of managing nursing home bingo.

3) Jerome Schmidt attended a meeting with the District Deputy. One of the things discussed was recruiting, GTO – Grow the order. The Winona council is planning to have a major degree sometime this fall.

The new theme is GTO (Grow the Order). The Supreme Chaplain’s challenge for August is for all men to do a daily examination of our hearts – to review each day and to pray “Jesus, I trust in you.”

Prayer Projects (See sidebar of newsletter)

Closing prayer was led by Grand Knight and the meeting was adjourned
